KidzEra is excited that you are submitting an entry! KidzEra is created from student submissions. We do not necessarily endorse or agree with the content. Content in KidzEra is not guaranteed to be error-free and does not take the place of professional legal, medical or mental advice. It's important that you know that KidzEra, or anyone who represents us, may publish your entry in our print, Internet, TV, mobile, apparel or consumer products. In KidzEra magazine, we can publish your first name and the first initial of your last name, age, grade, school, city, state and photo (if you send one), along with your entry. We can make changes to your entry if we feel they are necessary. If we publish your entry in KidzEra, we will award you Points. Allow up to 60 days to receive your Points. When you are published, KidzEra becomes the owner of your entry. However, you can still submit your entry to other publishers. We may transfer our ownership of your entry to someone else without your permission or additional compensation. KidzEra reserves the right to change our rates, rules and conditions without notice.
